James Cromwell endorses Krystal Serrano for the 98th Assembly District

Friday, September 2, 2016, Monroe, NY – Environmental activist and actor, James Cromwell, endorsed the candidacy of Krystal Serrano for the 98th Assembly District for the Green Party primary.

Mr. Cromwell stated “Krystal is the most qualified candidate to run for the 98th Assembly District and has the leadership skills to work with everyone in the District and Albany. She will fight to protect the environment by opposing pipelines that carry fracked gas across the district and compressor power plants that release emissions that damage the health of residents, animals and farmland and water resources; and any annexation plans that create negative Impacts on the environment.”

Mr. Cromwell asks that all Green Party voters write in Krystal Z. Serrano in the upcoming primary being held on Tuesday, September 13, 2016.

The 98th District is located in Orange and Rockland counties. It is comprised of the City of Port Jervis, the Towns of Deerpark, Greenville, Minisink, Warwick, Monroe, Tuxedo, and in Rockland, the Town of Ramapo.
