Krystal Serrano receives the Eleanor Legacy Endorsement

Thursday, September 8, 2016, Monroe, NY – Krystal Serrano, candidate for the 98th Assembly District, has been endorsed by the Eleanor Roosevelt Legacy Committee. Their mission, inspired by the dynamic legacy of Eleanor Roosevelt, is to continue her work expanding the role of women in politics and government. As Eleanor famously said, "Democracy is not about words, but action."

"Eleanor's Legacy is proud to endorse Krystal Serrano for the New York State Assembly. When her mother died in child birth, Krystal took charge of raising her 14 younger siblings, finding her purpose in making sure her family thrived. And now, Krystal wants to see her community in the 98th Assembly District thrive. Combining her experience as an auxiliary police officer, a financial analyst, and a mother, Krystal has a vision for a community where schools are strong, businesses prosper, and families have every opportunity to succeed. When she goes to Albany, Krystal will work for the people, not the powerful in the 98th Assembly District." — Brette McSweeney, President of Eleanor's Legacy

The 98th District represents parts of Orange and Rockland counties. It is comprised of the City of Port Jervis and the Towns of Deerpark, Greenville, Minisink, Warwick, Monroe, and Tuxedo in Orange County and the Town of Ramapo in Rockland County.
