Krystal Serrano Receives Endorsement from NYCLASS: We Love Animals and We Vote

Thursday, September 8, 2016, Monroe, NY – Krystal Serrano, candidate for the 98th Assembly District, has been endorsed by NYCLASS: We Love Animals and We Vote.

NYCLASS is an animal advocacy organization committed to creating a more humane city for all New Yorkers, two-legged and four-legged. They believe in the power of organizing and mobilizing the animal protection voting bloc to move humane legislation.

The 98th District represents parts of Orange and Rockland counties. It is comprised of the City of Port Jervis and the Towns of Deerpark, Greenville, Minisink, Warwick, Monroe, and Tuxedo in Orange County and the Town of Ramapo in Rockland County.
